1-2 tsp vanilla

Preheat oven to 350° F.

In a mixing bowl, cream together the butter and cookie mix. Add egg and vanilla and mix until completely blended. Yield 24 - 3 inch cookies

CHOCOLATE CHIP ICE CREAM BARS

- 1 17 oz. box Hodgson Mill Gluten Free Chocolate Chip Cookie Mix
- ½ cup butter, softened
- 1 egg, room temperature
- 1-2 tsp. vanilla
- 1/3 cup gluten free chocolate hard shell chocolate topping
- 1/2 container (1.5 qt) gluten free vanilla ice cream, softened
- *Chopped peanut topping optional

Preheat oven to 350° F. In large bowl, prepare cookie mix according to directions on the box. After mix is well blended, divide dough in half. Line the bottom of two 8x8 pans with parchment paper. Press half of dough into each pan. You may need to use moistened fingers as dough will be sticky. Bake 18-22 minutes or until set and lightly brown. Do not over bake. Cool completely about 30 minutes. Spread 1/3 cup of hard shell chocolate topping over one dish of cooled baked crust. Freeze 10 to 15 minutes or until chocolate is set. Remove ice cream from freezer to soften. Spread softened ice cream evenly over chocolate topped crust. Place second baked cookie crust on top. Cover; freeze overnight. Let stand at room temperature a few minutes before cutting. Store remaining dessert covered in freezer. Yield: 16 servings

Note: This recipe can be prepared in a 9x13 pan, cutting the baked cookie crust in half, using half for top layer and half for bottom layer. Use parchment paper lined pan for ease in removing a portion of the cookie for the top layer.

*This dessert can be varied using your favorite ice cream topping, shaved chocolate, nuts and many more. Let your imagination lead the way.
